Agreement Reached on Future By Congressmen and Churchill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 — (AP)—Most members of Congress agree with Winston Churchill that in the uncertain years ahead Britain and the United States must "tread the same path."

But lawmakers of both major parties shied away from the prime minister's suggestion "token forces" of the United States and other nations step into the Suez Canal Zone dispute.

Others saw dangers in Churchill's requests for U. S. steel, or his eloquent but grim forecast of possible troubles in Southeast Asia and the Middle East.

After his thunderous reception by the joint session of Congress Thursday, the 77-year-old statesman turned to another conference today with President Truman.

This is believed to involve the touchy question of the Atlantic naval command, under the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

CHURCHILL, long a proud defender of British prestige, was reported opposing a unified command in this area that might dim the traditional British naval control over sea lanes approaching Western Europe.

Some congressional opposition seemed to be piling up against Churchill's statement that "freedom of the famous waterway of the Suez Canal" should shift from present British responsibility to a "four-power approach."

He said the United States, France and Turkey might join England in the Suez to protect world interests "among which Egypt's own interests are paramount."

"It would enormously aid us in our task if even token forces of the other partners in the four power proposal were stationed in the canal zone as a symbol of the unity of purpose which inspires us," he told Congress.

Churchill's address left open the question of just how much Britain could help in applying "prompt, resolute and effective" action against a violation of the proposed Korean truce.

He said Britain and the United States are agreed this would be "our" response should an armistice, once arrived at, be broken.

His statement was generally accepted as referring to the original proposal of the United States that any truce should be bulwarked by an implied ultimatum that Red China would be bombed and blockaded if the Communists launched a new aggression in Korea.

The prime minister did not spell out the form the promised resolute action would take.

TRUCE TALKS GET BITTER

Civilian Defense In Ohio Asks For $1,376,000

Governor Lausche To Make Personal Plea for Support

COLUMBUS, Jan. 18 — (AP)—The Ohio Board of Control was scheduled to act Friday on a request by Ohio's civil defense leaders for $1,376,000 to prepare for atomic attacks.

Adjutant General Albert B. Henderson of Willoughby, Ohio's new civil defense director, has asked for $976,000 for general defense operations and $400,000 for medical supplies.

Henderson asked the board to release the money from an appropriation of $2,650,000 by the last legislature.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche was scheduled to appear personally in support of the request.

Dr. William E. Warner, chief executive assistant for civil defense, said the federal government would match the state funds.

Warner said it would be used to make control centers out of six armories, buy training aids for cities and schools, set up warning stations and mobile rescue units for bombed-out cities.

The state control center would be located in Westerville armory, North of Columbus. Other centers would be set up in armories in Blue Ash, Chagrin Falls, Findlay, Alliance and Lancaster.

Warner said 80 per cent of Ohio's population lives in or near 19 target cities.

Hundreds Being Evacuated Ahead of California Floods

SWIRLING FLOOD WATERS partially submerge a car in which Giles Steele, Hollywood costume designer, was drowned near Los Angeles. The auto in which he was trapped was overturned. A woman companion was rescued by police. Millions in damage have been caused by the worst rainstorm in Southern California's history. (International)

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 18 — (AP)—Two thousand families were ordered evacuated Friday as a deluging rain poured floods into flatlands.

The sheriff's substation at Norwalk announced the Coast Guard, moving 10 miles inland from the Pacific, would undertake to move the 6,000 or more persons from the path of rising waters.

The emergency centers in the communities of Norwalk, Artesia and Hawaiian Gardens, southeast of here. The Coast Guard moved up from its bases at Long Beach and San Pedro with boats and amphibious equipment of all types. Another critical situation in the San Fernando Valley north of Los Angeles proper apparently was well in hand, although some 200 families had been taken from their homes in the Reseda area.

AS WELCOME sunshine broke through the clouds shortly after dawn, the picture through much of Southern California was one of rushing torrents, mud-closed highways.

By 8 A. M., the storm had brought 4.17 inches in Los Angeles in 18 hours. Higher amounts fell on foothill communities which ring the city and despite flood control channels and spreading basins, the immense volume of water was ripping out roads and cutting into canyon banks as it rushed toward the sea.

The entire state has been plagued by the worst storms since the turn of the century this week, and Northern California braced itself for another one bearing down from the Gulf of Alaska. Virtually all main railroad and highway routes across the Sierra have been closed and there is general transportation chaos.

The Southern California area had hardly 24 hours respite from the Tuesday-Wednesday storm when the downpour began again Thursday.

Schools in Los Angeles, Pasadena, Norwalk and El Monte were ordered closed Friday because of heavy rain, many flooded streets and intersections. There were 40,000 absentees in Los Angeles Thursday.

RAIN MEASURED 17.4 inches this season, compared with 3.13 inches at this time last year.

The California Highway Patrol said all main highways into or out of Los Angeles County were closed by flood water, earth slides or snow.

Patrol Sgt. Walter Wortendyke said "any traffic is a distinct hazard. We are advising people at home or at work to stay there if possible." He said all patrolmen have been ordered on 24-hour duty.

Nine deaths were recorded Thursday, making 13 for the week.

Stock, Bond Sale By DP&L Studied

COLUMBUS, Jan. 18 — (AP)—The Public Utilities Commission of Ohio is studying a plan by the Dayton Power and Light Co. to raise $22 million by selling stock and bonds.

The company asked the commission to approve a plan whereby the stock would be offered first to present stockholders, and then two financial houses would handle the bond issue and the remainder of the stock.

The company said it wants the Morgan Stanley Co. of New York and the W. E. Hutton Co. of Cincinnati to handle the deal. But the Halsey Stuart Co. of Chicago, another investment house, claims the Dayton company would save money by asking competitive bids.

Snowbound Train Gives Him Cure

MIDDLETOWN, Jan. 18 — (AP)—Dr. Walter H. Roehll of Middletown, one of the passengers stranded by snow on a train for four days in the Sierra mountains, is emphatic about one thing—he intends to use airplane transportation when he returns home.

Dr. Roehll, credited with saving the lives of passengers overcome by gas, telephoned his daughter, Mrs. Janet Cockman, and said he would come back from his vacation by plane.

"Do you think you ought to fly?" Mrs. Cockman asked her father.

His reply was: "You're damn right! You don't think I want to get stuck in one of those things again, do you?"

Slurring Cracks Made to Allies By Communists

Reds Keep Harping About Bombing of Kaesong by UN

MUNSAN, Jan. 18 — (AP)—Truce negotiators kept tempers in check Friday as they wrangled fruitlessly over terms of a Korean armistice. The only outburst came from a Chinese delegate who referred scornfully to America's Allies as "running dogs."

Maj. Gen. Claude Ferenbaugh made his daily plea that the Reds promise not to build airfields in North Korea during a truce.

The Communists replied, as usual, that their pledge not to send combat planes across the Yalu during a truce was sufficient guarantee.

In an adjoining tent Rear Adm. R. E. Libby tried vainly to get Red negotiators to accept voluntary repatriation of war prisoners.

UN investigators made another trip to the protected Kaesong area to examine a crater. The Reds say it was made by an Allied aerial bomb Thursday.

The Communists' Peiping radio said preliminary joint investigation established "full responsibility" of the Allies. The broadcast monitored in Tokyo said American planes attacked in broad daylight.

Kaesong is headquarters for the Red truce delegation, and is designated immune from attack.

MIG'S MISS SABER JETS

SEOUL, Jan. 18 — (AP)—Jet planes fought over Northwest Korea Friday for the fourth successive day and U. S. Sabrejets fought briefly with elements of a formation of 120 Communist jets. One flight of four Mig-15s broke through, made a firing pass, then headed for home. No damage was reported.

Action along the frozen 145-mile ground front followed the same quiet pattern of the last two months.

Corruption Cleanup By Democrats Urged

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 — (AP)—Senator Lehman (D-NY), an administration supporter, believes the Democratic Party "will not hold or deserve the confidence of the people" unless wrongdoers are routed out of federal jobs and punished.

The New Yorker said (1) "corruption in government is bad on its own account" and (2) it also provides America's enemies abroad "with deadly ammunition for propaganda against us."

Lehman's blunt election year remarks were in a speech before the Women's National Democratic Club.

Although he called for a prompt and vigorous housecleaning by the Truman administration, Lehman said he would "give no comfort to politically inspired and politically biased attacks upon the government service as such—attacks which seek political revenge rather than constructive reform."

"WE SHOULD be shocked at the pillaging of people's reputations, at the stripping from them of their good names and characters, by political hucksters who, under the protection of legislative immunity, pillory people as Communists and subversives. This is immoral."

Lehman said the whole nation needs "a strengthening of its moral fiber. The overall situation involves the dangerous decline of moral force, not only in government, but in business; not only in public life but in private life as well."

Commander of 37th Awaited at Camp Polk

CAMP POLK, La., Jan. 18 — (AP)—The commanding general and artillery commander of the 37th Infantry Division are expected to arrive here Thursday.

Maj. Gen. Leo M. Kreber and Brig. Gen. Kenneth Cooper will precede the bulk of the Ohio National Guard outfit by at least four days.

More than 25 trains will bring the division from Ohio to Polk, arriving between Tuesday and Friday of next week. It was called to federal service Jan. 15.

Rain and Wind Lash Ohio as It Cools Off

COLUMBUS, Jan. 18 — (AP)—The unusual summer-like weather the last several days brought electrical storms, raging winds and high water to some sections of Ohio Friday.

An electrical storm struck Central Ohio Thursday night, blowing down tree limbs, high tension wires, utility poles and causing damage to some homes and business places.

The storm followed Thursday's record high temperatures. The temperature reached 61 in mid-afternoon for an all-time high. Previous high for Jan. 17 was a mark of 58 degrees in 1928.

The Scioto River blocked State Route 203 north of Prospect near Marion and stood near sections of State Route 95 in Larue.

Waters from the Olentangy River blocked portions of State Route 30 east of Caledonia and were over other roads in that part of the state.

Marion reported 1.3 inches of rain since Wednesday.

Neil House Sues Union for Damages

COLUMBUS, Jan. 18 — (AP)—The Neil House Co. has filed a $3.1 million damage suit against Hugo Ernst, president of the Hotel and Restaurant Employees and Bartenders International Union (AFL).

The hotel, in its suit, cited 11 cases of what it termed "unlawful and criminal acts." Some Neil House workers have been off the job since early November in a dispute over union recognition and a pay increase.

Sweden and Russia Make Trade Deal

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 18 — (AP)—Sweden and Russia plan to double their trade—largely Russian wheat for Swedish machinery and metal goods—under a new trade agreement announced Thursday night by the Swedish foreign office.

Sweden will send the Soviet Union steam turbines, electricity generators, iron, steel, metal products, machinery, instruments and butter worth about $23 million.

Sweden expected to get goods worth about $19 million with two-thirds of that total for 100,000 tons of wheat.

Meanderings By Wash Fayette

Here is one of the most unusual swine stories I ever heard. Frank Wolfe, who resides on the Rollo Marchant farm in Jasper Township, owns 180 fall pigs.

The porkers weighed around 80 pounds each, and were doing well until a short time ago when Frank discovered that a number of the hogs had lost their tails.

As time went on other hogs came up minus their tails. This continued, in a most mystifying way, until all but one of the 180 had lost their tails.

Then Frank decided to do something about it. He drove the one hog with the tail into a pen with a few others, all of which had their tails intact.

Within 24 hours, the tails of the other hogs started to disappear. It became evident that the hog suspected of the abnormal habit had really bitten off the 179 tails, and a few in the pen where his appetite was tested.

Now the hog is in a pen by itself, and will have no further opportunity of devouring the tails of other hogs.

It is the first instance of its kind on record, so far as known.

Federal Grain Missing From Elevators in Ohio

COLUMBUS, Jan. 18 — (AP)—The federal government has sued the Kingston Farmers Exchange, Inc., for $111,123 in grain it contends is missing.

The grain was stored by the Commodity Credit Corporation under agricultural price support.

Asst. District Attorney Loren Windom said the government contends the grain was sold, but CCC was not paid for the grain. The exchange accepted 98,000 bushels of wheat in June and July of 1949, issuing warehouse receipts.

These receipts later were given one Circleville and one Logan bank as security for $202,000 in loans. The loans were repaid.

The government listed J. I. Gates and E. F. Reynolds as partners who formed the original exchange company which negotiated the storage contract with CCC.

THE SUIT is similar to one in which the government seeks to recover $164,720 from Edison Mills in Morrow County. Named defendants in that suit are these executors of the estate of Harry W. Martin: Mary Krody, Lillian G. Martin and Rannie Stevens.

In Washington, Sen. Clinton Anderson (D-NM) said it is not yet known how much CCC losses from grain storage shortage and spoilage might amount to.

He said there have been informal estimates—not his own—that the loss might run as high as $100 million.

He noted that the cases of shortage reported by the General Accounting Office so far totaled only $4 million and said another case now under congressional investigation involved a reported shortage of $1 million.

Busch Backed By Little Joe

CLEVELAND, Jan. 18 — (AP)—Prof. Henry M. Busch, claiming State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson's support, Friday became the first Democrat to announce he wants the Senate seat now held by Republican John W. Bricker.

The candidacy for the nomination made still more important the question: What will Michael V. DiSalle, price administrator, do?

When the results were in from the 1950 Democratic primary, Ferguson won easily. DiSalle ran second. Busch was third. Unlike the first two, Busch, a Cleveland college professor, has had little political experience.

As recently as Wednesday, DiSalle said in Cincinnati that he had not yet made up his mind. The only other apparent candidate at this point is Edward Lamb, newspaper publisher and radio-TV station owner.

Petitions were taken out for Lamb in Columbus Wednesday, but he has not announced a formal candidacy.

In his statement last night, Busch said he "stands pledged to continuing the struggle for progress we have seen in the last 20 years under the leadership of Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman."

Busch also "thanked" Ferguson for pledging him support in the campaign. This could be important: Ferguson is well known among Ohio Democrats and his backing may mean votes.

Gas Firm Cited In Damage Suits

CLEVELAND, Jan. 18 — (AP)—Burns received by two boys attempting to light firecrackers have been blamed on Ohio Fuel Gas Co. The firm is being sued for $400,000 in separate suits of like amount by parents of Melvin Eckert, 11, of Crestline, and his friend, Joe C. Rice, 7, also of Crestline.

The boys, the petitions said, were in a Crestline culvert Oct. 1. The older boy struck a match and accumulated gas leaking from a line exploded, the court was told.

German Windjammer Is Riding Out Gale

DEAL, Eng., Jan. 18 — (AP)—The four-master German bark Pamir, one of the last of the big sea-going windjammers, is riding out a North Sea gale which had sent lifeboats scudding to her rescue.

The four-masted vessel with 45 sea cadets and 46 crewmen aboard had radioed an urgent call for help after heavy seas pounded off one of her anchors. Later she messaged the weather had moderated and she was able to resume her voyage without help.

'Love Thy Neighbor' Or Was It Mistake

QUINCY, Calif., Jan. 18 — (AP)—Gene Dupont huffed and puffed in the snow to get his automobile dug out.

He shoveled the snow away from the rear, the front and the sides. Then he learned he'd uncovered his neighbor's car—an identical model.

His own car can stay where it is until spring, says Dupont.

Soil Conservation Winners Named

COLUMBUS, Jan. 18 — (AP)—Two farmers—Robert Shirden of Clarksville and Robert Price of Oxford—were named winners of a soil conservation contest Thursday night at the ninth annual meeting of the Ohio Federation of Soil Conservation Districts.

L. S. Hartley, manager of agriculture development for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, which sponsored the contest, presented Shirden and Price with certificates and wrist watches.

Decision Is Near In Razete Hearing

DAYTON, Jan. 18 — (AP)—The defense rested its case without calling any witnesses Thursday in the trial of Lawrence A. Razete, Cincinnati businessman charged with conspiracy to defraud the government.

Razete, an official of a Cincinnati electronics firm, is accused of giving gratuities for Air Force contract favors.

U. S. District Judge Robert R. Nevin Friday was to hear attorney arguments on special instructions to be given the jury. Final arguments are scheduled for Monday with the case going to the jury Tuesday morning.

Miller has been superintendent of the inland lakes section of the parks division. W. V. Flickinger is division chief.

Flickinger announced the appointment of Don L. Sheldon as inland lakes section superintendent. Miller is a native of Van Wert and Sheldon of Fostoria.

The More You Get the More They Cost

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 — (AP)—The man who made postal cards cost more when bought in quantity lots than when purchased singly says critics don't understand the purpose of the plan.

The reason, says Rep. Hagen (R-Minn.), is to keep the government from competing with commercial print shops that turn out picture post cards, and throwing men out of work.

Hagen was sponsor of a law that went into effect Jan. 1. It has come under attack by half a dozen congressmen who have introduced repeal bills.

Under the new law the price of postal cards—the government printed kind sold in postoffices—went up from one to two cents if bought in lots of less than 50. Over that number there is a 10 per cent surcharge. Thus you can buy 49 cards for two cents apiece, but the bill for 50 is $1.10, making the fiftieth card cost 12 cents.

The rate for mailing a commercial post card—the drug store variety bearing a picture of a beach or a pretty girl—also rose to two cents, but there is no penalty for quantity mailing.

Hagen maintains that the government is, in effect, "giving paper away" when it sells a stamped, ready-to-mail card for the same price it charges for postage on an open face chromo of Sassafras Lake in the moonlight.

The result, he maintains, is to put the government into competition with the nation's printing shops, and creating unemployment.

He said that when the bill was (Please turn to Page Ten)

'Militant Republican' Urged by Taft Backers

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18 — (AP)—Senator Lodge (R-Mass) offered Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower to the Republicans Friday as the one presidential candidate "who could bring the world durable peace."

Lodge took sharp—if indirect—issue with Taft supporters who said the party would be risking its political future if it nominates a "glamour candidate" in Chicago next July.

Lodge is national chairman of the GOP Eisenhower-for-President Committee.

David S. Ingalls, campaign manager for Ohio's Senator Robert A. Taft, said the party should not

High Prices Blamed For Reducing Profits

ATLANTIC CITY, Jan. 18 — (AP)—Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putnam told grocery wholesalers Friday their sales failed to gain much since Korea because many families have been priced out of the market.

Dollar sales of groceries in retail stores gained 13 per cent between June 1950 and last October, but grocery prices rose 12 and one half per cent, Putnam said.

Druggist Admits Fraud

CLEVELAND, Jan. 18 — (AP)—Police have quoted druggist Eli Alexander Rukasin as admitting he obtained $818 worth of drug store supplies by using a false name when telephoning for them and then sending a delivery boy to pick them up from a wholesaler.

Sea Gulls and B-36 Both Suffer Damage

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 18 — (AP)—A mighty B-36 bomber and a squadron of seagulls collided here. Both sides suffered.

Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corp. estimated damage to the leading edge of the bomber's wing at $500. An estimated 100 dead seagulls were found on Lindberg Field, where the collision occurred as the plane came in for a landing.

British Bride Hurt By Mystery Bullet

CINCINNATI, Jan. 18 — (AP)—The British bride that L. C. Trent wooed and won by air mail lay in fair condition in Our Lady of Mercy Hospital Thursday, a bullet wound through her chest.

Police Lt. Charles Yoas said he has ruled out the possibility of attempted murder. Whether the slim, attractive English woman tried to kill herself or whether she shot herself accidentally still is uncertain, however.

DAYTON, Jan. 18 — (AP)—Arless E. Emerick has filed suit for divorce from Mrs. Bernice M. Emerick, who was sentenced to nine years in prison last month for embezzling $12,047 from the Wright Field Credit Union. The Emericks were married in Toledo in 1940.

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 — (P)—Winston Churchill looks like what he is, a man of 77. He retains what he always had, stubbornness and steadfastness. But he's the end of an era and can't seem to believe it.

He is a product of the 19th century, which he loves, and is astonished by the 20th. His speech to Congress Thursday was full of valor but it was a study of nostalgia.

In World War II he was a steadfast ally, which he remains now in the struggle with Communism. He made that clear in his talk. No one doubts his word or his intentions.

In the last war he showed the profound depths of his stubbornness when, by his unyielding will against the Nazis, he carried his people to victory, the finest page in British history.

Counting the colonial empire, it had acquired by conquest, the 19th century Britain in which he grew up was the greatest single power on earth: commercially, numerically, and militarily.

IT IS NO LONGER that. Bled almost to death by war, it was left impoverished, lacking the power and resources to hold its ancient empire. India, for instance, got its independence.

As its power dwindled, so did its prestige, for the prestige had been based on power. Events in Iran and Egypt show how that prestige has suffered.

People everywhere after the war began to demonstrate their deep desire for national independence. The desire had been there. But it had been held in check. The ruin left by the war unleashed it.

This became one of the great facts of the mid-20th century. During the war Churchill was unwilling or unable, to foresee this.

He said he had not become his majesty's first minister to preside over the liquidation of the empire. The events that have happened since the war, he said, have left him astounded. And even now, in the face of facts and a diminished Britain, Churchill looks with nostalgia on the 19th century, as he revealed in the use of a single word, "predominant."

"When the war ended," he said, speaking of the Middle East, "the Western nations were respected and predominant throughout" the area.

THE PEOPLE of the Middle East could answer this by telling Churchill the treatment the British have received there springs from their determination not to let anyone be predominant over them.

And Churchill proudly told Congress he not only thinks the other nations of Western Europe should be unified, and have a common army, but has urged it on them.

But as for Britain—no. He would not let Britain take part. He still seems to think of Britain as different and apart from Europe. He will not let it lose a shred of its identity in a merger with others.

Kangaroos, wombats, "teddy bear" Koalas, and platypus are creatures common to both Australia and Tasmania, but found nowhere else on earth.

Another 'Torch' Sweater Turns Up Here--After It Blazed over Owner

Another "torch" sweater has been turned up in Fayette County.

And there is little doubt left that the sweaters are dangerous, for this one burst into flames on its wearer—Harley Wright, 69, who lives on the CCC Highway across from the roadside park site.

Wright said he had no further use for the garment after reading in the Record-Herald about an experiment which city police and firemen conducted on a similar one sold on the streets of Washington C. H. to Robert Summers.

WRIGHT HAS had the garment for more than a year, but it wasn't until last November that he realized that there was something "different" about it.

That was when he started to light a cigarette and found himself engulfed in flames.

Wright told this story of the incident to a Record-Herald reporter:

"I got this sweater as a birthday present from my boy in Dayton and had only worn it three times.

"It was getting colder and I was getting ready to go up town; I was standing by the stove in the living room.

"I STRUCK A match to light a cigarette before I went out to get in the car. In an instant I was afire all over. The blaze went up to my hat. It was all over my back."

Wright said he tried to brush the flames off with his hands, and burned one of his fingers deep enough to leave a scar. A member of the family used a wiping cloth to smother out some of the fire.

But Wright said he had to throw away his hat because it was so blackened by the flames.

"It was lucky I had that hat on, or my hair would have caught fire," he explained.

"You can have the sweater; I have no further use for it," he told the reporter.

It was turned over to the city police department. Police officers said it felt much like the sweater which Summers bought here and which went up in flames in 40 seconds after a cigarette lighter had been applied to it by Police Chief Vaiden Long.

THE OUTSIDE SWEATER of Wright's two-piece pea green set was turned brown in spots from the flames at his home. He said

BUCYRUS, Jan. 18.—(P)—The trial of Arthur Sargel of Galion on charges of embezzlement and grand larceny has resumed.

Sargel's brother, Walter, 59, a Crawford County commissioner, and Harold L. Dinkel, former Crawford County home superintendent, were sentenced last week to indeterminate terms in Ohio Penitentiary. All three were indicted following an investigation of the county home. Walter Sargel and Dinkel pleaded guilty.

Tuition To Be Changed
CINCINNATI, Jan. 18.—(P)—Hebrew Union College here and the Jewish Institute of Religion, its New York affiliate, will charge tuition next year for the first time in HUC's 76 years.

Usually January 20 is the last day to file, but since January 20 falls on Sunday, the licenses will be sold Monday.

Persons who apply for licenses by mail and have their letters postmarked Jan. 21, will receive their licenses without penalty.

After Monday, the law provides for a penalty of $1 for each person who has not obtained a dog license.

Nearly 1,400 Dog Licenses Issued

More than 1,400 dogs have been licensed, which means that licenses for some 900 additional dogs must be obtained by the time the county auditor's office closes Monday to avoid penalties.

BUCYRUS, Jan. 18.—(P)—The trial of Arthur Sargel of Galion on charges of embezzlement and grand larceny has resumed.

Sargel's brother, Walter, 59, a Crawford County commissioner, and Harold L. Dinkel, former Crawford County home superintendent, were sentenced last week to indeterminate terms in Ohio Penitentiary. All three were indicted following an investigation of the county home. Walter Sargel and Dinkel pleaded guilty.

New Chevrolets Will Be Shown

Brandenburg Plans Opening Saturday

The Brandenburg Motor Sales, Inc., here will have four new 1952 Chevrolets of varied models on display here Saturday in its showrooms.

A large crowd of visitors is expected for the car opening. Refreshments will be served, and favors will be given out to those present.

A brilliant array of smart, new colors, a richness in passenger compartments, an easier ride and readier power response headline an impressive list of advances in the 1952 Chevrolets.

Specifically, the new models on display Saturday offer the following:

(1) Greater comfort through radically re-engineered power mountings and a re-design of shock absorbers.

(2) Improved performance under extreme operating conditions through refinements in carburetion.

(3) A wide variety of solid and two-tone color exteriors combined with harmonizing interior fabrics that give the customer an amazing 129 choices when he buys a Chevrolet.

THE MODELS to be shown here are representative of eleven body types comprising the Chevrolet passenger car line for 1952. Again this year, the company will produce two series, the Special and Deluxe. Ranging from the ultra-practical business coupe to the swank Bel Air, the line affords an unusually complete assortment in bodies, appointments and accessories.

In eye-appeal the latest Chevrolets present a balanced beauty of design. A new radiator grille, fresh ornamentation and bright metal-work impart a lower, longer appearance.

Bodies by Fisher retain the same spaciousness of a year ago, but more than ever before interiors possess an atmosphere of custom coachwork. In the "harmonic interiors" of DeLuxe sedans, for instance, two-tone upholstery is furnished in gray, blue or green. Instrument panel colors correspond to upholstery material.

Social Security Cutoff Is Blasted

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 — (P)—Rep. Alvin F. Weichel (R-Ohio) has asked the Social Security administrator to reconsider the case of a Lorain, O., widow, whose Social Security payment for January was cut off because her December income was 71 cents too high.

Weichel said the widow, whom he did not name, received a $2.63

Christmas gift from an employer for whom she works part time in a drygoods store. The gift made her December income 71 cents more than the maximum allowed those getting Social Security assistance.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 18.—(P)—Aloysius Smrdel found his wife's body hanging from a clothesline and his daughter dead in her crib nearby Wednesday night when he walked into his kitchen.

Police said Mrs. Rose Smrdel, 39, left a note indicating she believed she and 18-day-old Rosemary had cancer. Cause of the infant's death could not be determined without an autopsy.

Living Room May Become Political Forum

The living room in the average home in Fayette County and all over the country is about ready to become the arena for the big political campaign of 1952.

Probably not only the living room in the home, but every street corner and every other place where a few people congregate, will become spots for a lot of political arguments.

There is every indication that 1952 is to be a mighty important period in the politics of this country. Some momentous decisions are to be made.

However, an unusual number of voters this year will watch campaign proceedings on television in their homes. After the pictures and arguments seen and heard from the television, or what may be heard on the radio, it is likely that discussions will continue among those who see and hear these things. As the campaign grows hot such talk may last far into the night.

Both major political parties have shown their awareness of the opportunities offered by television, and are making plans to use it as a new way of reaching a big section of the electorate. It is estimated that it will be possible to reach 50,000,000 persons by this means.

Both parties selected the Chicago arena for their conventions because the Windy City was best suited telegraphically to bring the spectacle to the people. After the nominations have been made and the campaign gets under way, television will replace the public forum to a great extent.

Thus opportunities for reaching the voters may be widened, the problem of effectiveness of personal appeal will be widened. Issues may be forgotten when candidates are judged solely by appearances and mannerisms.

It may be difficult to project logic and sound political judgment in competition with a candidate who could easily become the idol of millions because of his personal magnetism.

Therein lies one of the dangers of this innovation.

Demagog Dangers

We are often told that the people of the United States can keep their country strong if they have the courage to insist on good leadership and actively seek it. A leading industrialist recently warned of the consequences of the almost daily attacks on business by some men seeking high office in government or labor.

He said, "Intentionally or unintentionally, these men are splitting the country into factions and then setting one faction against the other. They are encouraging profligate government and jurisdictional strikes, as needless as they are costly, and they are quick to threaten the use of force. We see increasing corruption in public office."

Many of these people would feel libeled if accused of being Communists, he observed. "Yet," he added, "they are following very much the program the Communists would employ to bring about the ruin of our country; split it into opposing factions; sow the seeds of dissension, mistrust and fear; destroy the profit motive and remove all incentive; bleed its economy white and bring on national bankruptcy; then take over with help from the discordant elements. If this state of affairs long continues, the country cannot survive."

The next federal budget will total $55,000,000,000, it is predicted. Soon the crack about sending one's pay to Washington with instructions to return what is left after deducting taxes, may cease to be a joke.

Racket Is Just Life to Dimples

WASHINGTON, (U—) Today, invading the field of the true confession magazines, we focus on the home life of Sarah Mears Hall.

She is a plumpish woman, attractive and well-spoken in a dreamy, little girl sort of voice. Nickname: "Dimples." Occupation: "barmaid," she said, not without pride. It never was made clear whether she is Miss or Mrs. Hall.

Dimples told her story on television recently. The scene was a crowded room in which the Senate's District of Columbia Committee was trying to find out whether the numbers operators and other leeches that infest your capital have been paying off the cops, and if so how much.

And Dimples Hall, a star witness, owned up to having some inside information.

From 1945 to 1950, she said, she maintained a home on Georgia Avenue in Washington. And in that home, she said, one Roger "Whitely" Simkins operated a "numbers business." A thriving one, too, Dimples said, with a take ranging up to $8,000 a day.

"This was in your home?" asked the committee's counsel, Arnold Bauman.

"Yes sir," Dimples Hall said matter-of-factly.

She went on to give a few details of her home life in that period.

Adding machines, needed to keep track of the money that flowed in, were part of the furnishings.

The money? Of, they just left that on the dining room table.

And visitors to her home, Dimples Hall said, included policemen—sometimes in uniforms, sometimes not.

"You realize that you were in an illegal enterprise," Bauman said. "Did it give you any concern when these officers came in?"

Dimples Hall said she felt "a little leery" at first, until Simkins told her not to fret about it. Why wasn't she to fret? She had a little memory trouble at that point, but finally remembered. Simkins, she said, told her he was paying the police for "protection."

"What was his term for it?" Bauman asked.

"Ice," said Dimples Hall, dimpling.

How much "ice?" Dimples Hall said she didn't know for sure. She'd heard, though, that all the big numbers operators paid off "in the hundreds."

There was quite a staff employed in the "numbers business" at her home, Dimples Hall said—a man called "Jack the Bear," another called "Chee Chee Charlie," various others.

Senator Hunt (D-Wyo.), who was presiding, took a hand in the questioning. Did these people, he wanted to know, report for work in the morning and go home in the evening, like employees of any firm?

That's just what they did, Dimples Hall said.

"How long," inquired the senator, "did Simkins stay at your house each day?"

Dimples Hall looked surprised. "Why, at that particular time," she said, "he stayed as long as he wanted to. He was my boyfriend."

The Rights of School Teachers

Some time ago, I wrote an article about schools, teachers and such matters and received quite a large mail in response to it. Some parents and teachers agreed with me; most teachers and school administrators were very annoyed that one so ignorant as I, should presume to discuss education.

Probably their objection arises from the fact that I do not have a Ph. D. from Teachers College. However, as a father of three children, two of whom are still involved in the process of what is called education, I stand on my rights to discuss their intellectual and spiritual fate, and as one who is taxed in two places for schools to which he does not send his children, preferring to pay additionally for that commodity, I have some rights left, I hope.

Looking through the decisions of various courts on the rights of teachers, I came across the very interesting case of McDowell vs. board of education of city of New York. In 1918, Mary S. McDowell, a Quaker and a Latin teacher, took the position:

"... She would not uphold the country in forcibly resisting invasion; she did not want to help the government of the United States in carrying on the present war; she would not urge her pupils to support the war, to perform Red Cross services or to buy thrift stamps."

She was charged with conduct unbecoming a teacher and subsequently discharged from her position. She went to court. Justice Eugene A. Philbin in October, 1918, ruled:

"The petitioner was not dismissed because she is a Quaker. It has simply been proved that certain views and beliefs, which she declares are based upon her religion prevent her from properly discharging the duty she assumed. Where a person agrees with the state to perform a public duty, she will not be excused from performance according to law merely because her religion forbids her doing so. While the petitioner may be entitled to the greatest respect for her adherence to her faith, she cannot be permitted because of it to act in a manner inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state."

This decision is applicable to many cases which arise today, involving a conflict between private conscience and public policy. A Communist, a Russian, an anti-Nazi, a believer in world government has a right to private judgment and the pursuit of conscience. But does he also have a right to corrupt your child?

The long quarrel over Bible teaching in American schools arose not over the rejection of religion but over the varieties of texts. Each sect regarded the others' translations as false and in the end made political battle about it. Thus, the most valuable book in our language was thrown out of the schools to please many who knew neither Hebrew nor Greek and could therefore not be sure which translation is the more accurate.

Similarly, it now appears that the Christian Scientists object to references concerning death by germ, virus and bacteria as offensive to their religion. Were there enough Confucians to vote in elections, it might be that the astronomers would have to change from the solar to the lunar calendar. How far are we to go in permitting education to be a compromise among all the varieties of sects? There are more than 260 religious groups in this country, each of which might bring pressures to bear, to say nothing of the A. E. of L., The C. I. O., The N. A. M., and The A. S. P. C. A.

Yet, the members of each sect, group, association, party, are entitled to freedom of conscience. Thus, the Communist claims that he has an absolute right under the constitution to teach according to his judgment, but when a teacher wishes to give the Bible to children, the Communist makes a noise about separation of church and state.

It is too much to expect consistency among human beings. But an ordinary approach to the problems of education in a free society must lead to the conclusion that there must be a plan and a system: that those teachers who cannot fit themselves to it ought not to be permitted to teach; and that parents who dislike the plan and system may send their children to schools of their choice.

As a matter of fact, precisely that is happening among parents. There is an astonishing increase in independent (private) and parochial schools. The parochial schools are not limited to Roman Catholics; Jews, Episcopalians, Lutherans and other Protestants establishing such institutions.

The Communist teacher has no claim on the system at all at this time when Soviet Russia is our enemy. He is an agent of a foreign power, engaged in subverting our children with the hope of corrupting the nation.

Diet and Health Child Nervousness Has Complications

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Children sometimes have a nervous habit of swallowing hair. This can lead to serious stomach trouble.

We have all read of babies swallowing pins and coins which had to be removed from the stomach. Hair-swallowing can be even more serious, for the hair can mix with the stomach juices and food to form a ball within the stomach walls. Similar balls are often found in the stomachs of animals, and have been given the name of bezoars.

Magical Properties

In the time of Queen Elizabeth, bezoars were thought to have magical properties, and were highly prized.

When a person swallows large amounts of hair, it may act as a foreign body in the stomach, growing into a fairly large ball. If left in the stomach long enough, it may block off the normal pathway for food, so that the person is completely unable to digest the food eaten. A hair ball may even cause the stomach wall to waste away.

Hair swallowing is not too uncommon in young girls, usually those of a nervous temperament. After a while, these girls usually complain of pains around the abdomen. They refuse solid foods, preferring liquids. They also vomit persistently, have bad breath, are anemic and appear rundown.

The symptoms may lead a doctor to suspect some other serious stomach condition, such as a stomach tumor, if the hair ball grows very large. (One has been known to grow as large as 2½ pounds in a young girl.) Usually an X-ray examination reveals its true nature.

Children may eat the fuzz from blankets, which also forms bezoars, in the stomach. Occasionally, persons consume shellac and starch along with hair, causing the same symptoms, only more severe.

Of course, swallowing a few hairs by accident is not dangerous. The stomach disorders come when the habit is repeated for some time. Many cases of stomach distress in young girls, which have puzzled doctors, have been found to be due to bezoars from the hair-swallowing habit.

Auctioneer Snubs Security Payment

CLEVELAND, Jan. 18.—(U—) A self-employed auctioneer has refused to pay the new Social Security tax.

John F. Andrews of Beach City (Stark County) wrote the Internal Revenue Bureau office here he could provide his family "with a better future than the government can."

He paid his 1951 income tax of $549, but would not pay the Social Security tax of $81, which he declared, was discriminatory because it placed certain classes of workers under Social Security and excluded others such as lawyers, doctors and ministers.

Sunday School Lesson

By ROY L. SMITH

We have become accustomed to hearing the disciples of Jesus of Nazareth referred to as "humble fishermen" so that we have lost sight of the fact that they were all men who were relatively successful in their own communities.

At least four of them—Peter and Andrew, James and John—were members of prosperous fishing firms who engaged in a highly profitable business and had connections in many foreign cities. And in the case of another—Matthew—we are introduced to a man who occupied a highly important post in the Roman government.

The Roman Officer

The Roman government had a system of tax collecting which required a small army of employees, every one of whom was held to strict account for the funds handled.

The Uniform Sunday School lesson for January 20: "Matthew Becomes a Follower," Matthew 9:9-17; Luke 5:27-39.

The customs office at Capernaum was one of the most important in Palestine for it was in that city that the duties were collected on all the commerce that flowed down through the country enroute to or from Egypt and the East.

The tax collector at Capernaum found it necessary to maintain an elaborate establishment of clerks, appraisers, money changers, and scribes in collecting and forwarding the monies due to Rome.

The Man of Wealth

Matthew was a man of power and importance by any standard of measurement.

In the first place, he was required to put up a cash bond in order to be appointed to his post. Then he had to engage and supervise his staff, and guarantee them their wages. He had to deal with the public so skillfully that he would be able to collect the taxes and still keep the peace.

At least one authority has said that he had to have a working capital of at least one million dollars!

The dinner he gave in honor of Jesus indicates that he was a man accustomed to doing things in a big way.

He Left All

There have been those preachers who have dismissed quite lightly the statement that the first disciples left all, remarking that it was no more than "a few small fishing boats and a rotten net or two." But in Matthew's case the sacrifice was enormous.

Once having left the employ of Rome for such a reason he could never expect to get back on the pay roll again. He was already at odds with the Jews. In turning his back on Rome he was outcasting himself! Thereafter he would have nothing but his money, and purses are very impotent friends in times.

Let no man who has left less than all, despise Matthew!

The Thrill of Holy Daring

There is something very thrilling about any man who becomes so convinced that he is willing to risk everything.

$20,000 Stock Given To Church

Dr. Carey Persinger Is Voted Thanks

A gift of 800 shares of Banc-Ohio common stock to the First Presbyterian Church here by Dr. Carey Persinger of Sabina has just been announced by the Board of Trustees of the church.

The gift was made some time ago and was accepted by the trustees at a meeting about two weeks ago, but the public announcement was withheld until after the board had expressed its appreciation to Dr. Persinger. The resolution of appreciation was adopted at the same meeting, but a board spokesman said the trustees wanted to make certain it reached Dr. Persinger before the announcement was made public.

Dr. Persinger, a former resident of Washington C. H., has been a member of the church here for many years.

THE STOCK was transferred to the church, the announcement said, with the provision that Dr. Persinger should have the income from it during his lifetime, or if the stock is sold, to have the income from the investment of the proceeds from the sale.

After the death of Dr. Persinger, the board may sell the stock and spend the proceeds "for any purpose they (the trustees) deem to be for the best interests of said church," under provisions of the gift.

The stock is valued now at "slightly in excess of $20,000."

IN ITS RESOLUTION of appreciation, the Board of Trustees said the board "recognizes, and is in agreement with, the philosophy and opinions concerning Christianity and education as set out by Dr. Persinger in his remarks at the trustee meeting held Nov. 12, 1951" and that the trustees "accept this gift in the spirit in which it was given."

The resolution also expressed "sincerest and grateful thanks to Dr. Persinger."

Members of the board said the trustees had come to no decision as to what would be done with the gift. One said unofficially, however, that he assumed no change of investment would be considered for some time.

Although the church is known to have had under consideration for some time an expansion program to meet growing needs, the board made no official mention of it in connection with Dr. Persinger's gift.

The poinsettia is one of a group of plants known as short day plants because they will bloom only in the season of the year with short day-length periods, preferably 10 hours or less.

McNair Church Plans Big Event

Organ Dedication To Be Held Sunday

Preparations for the formal dedication of the new organ in McNair Memorial Presbyterian Church today were just about complete down to the last detail.

The dedication services, which have been arranged with painstaking care, are to open at 2:30 P. M. Sunday in the little white church on the corner of Lewis and Rawling streets.

Three organists prominent in music circles here are to take their places at the console upon special invitation of the committee for the occasion.

The services are to open with singing of a hymn, and devotions led by Dr. Paul H. Elliott, the church pastor.

THE GUEST organists for the services are Hugh Backenstoe, who is to play two solos "Beautiful Dreamer" and probably one of the old hymns; Miss Marian Christopher, who is to play "Romanze" by Beethoven and Karl J. Kay, whose numbers are to be "Morceau de Salon" by Behr and "Adagio from C Major Symphony" by Haydn.

There also are to be two vocal solos. Miss Becky Armbrust is to sing "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte and Mrs. Arthur Engle is to sing "Nature's Hymn of Praise" by Tilton.

A quartet of high school youths, Dean Wickensimer, Bob Cameron, Bud Dawson and Jimmy Michael, is to sing "Old Ark" and "In the Garden."

THE DEDICATION ritual, based on passages from the Bible, is to be read responsively by the congregation while standing.

The dedication itself is to be under the guidance of the pastor and a history of the church is to be given by Allen Hays.

In keeping with the expressed desire of many of the contributors to the fund, the organ is to be dedicated to the memory of four of the principal founders of the church: Mrs. Charles J. Campbell, Mrs. N. S. Craig, Mrs. M. O. Ireland and Mrs. Sarah Williams.

The dedicatory service is such an important occasion for the church and the community it serves that the gathering of its members and friends is expected to tax its capacity. Church leaders made it plain that everyone is welcome.

Large Attendance of Ladies Attend Luncheon Bridge At Country Club Thursday

Forty-seven members and guests took advantage of the spring-like day on Thursday and enjoyed the regular fortnightly luncheon bridge at the Country Club.

Lovely blooming potted plants were admired throughout the spacious club lounge and mounds of green myrtle with pastel tapers centered the tables seating forty-seven ladies for the congenial luncheon hour.

At the close of the several progressions in the spirited game during the afternoon awards were presented Mrs. Robert Edge, who was the holder of high score, Mrs. Clinton D. Young, second, while third went to Mrs. McCoy Gardner.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Darrell Weinrich, chairman who was assisted by Mrs. Albert S. Stemler, Mrs. Glenn Pine and Mrs. J. Rankin Paul.

Two Members Present Papers At Garden Club

Mrs. Ralph Davidson was hostess to members of the Busy Bee Garden Club on Thursday afternoon at her home near Jeffersonville.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. John Sheeley who read the poem "My Trees" by Ruth B. Abbott, and also led in a lengthy discussion on the program which is scheduled for the February meeting at the home of Mrs. Aniel Creamer.

It was voted to make a contribution to the March of Dimes and also to purchase seeds for the 4-H Garden Club girls and the committee named was Mrs. Aniel Creamer, Mrs. Russell Beatty and Mrs. Ralph Davidson.

The program leader, Mrs. Ruth Williams with the reading of a timely poem and roll call was responded to with garden resolutions for spring.

A paper given by Mrs. Russell Beatty was under the heading "African Violets" and after giving the origin of the plant in 1890 she told the members it was still practically a newcomer to the flower species and not until about forty-five years later did the plant become popular and is now an item deluxe to flower fanciers.

She also said probably the one person responsible for the popularity of the plant was Walter Armstrong, of California, who grew thousands of seedlings in 1930, among them was the Blue Boy, which is the most popular today.

Mrs. William K. Du Pont of Wilmington Delaware also helped in making this plant a favorite and around 1936 she sent to England for seed and among them one plant was outstanding for its foliage, and each year she gave away the discarded plants which were named DuPont blue when put on the market.

Florists who did a lot of propagating were Merkle and Sons of Mentor, Ohio and Mrs. Beatty told in the care of plants to remove mealy bugs from pinats by using rubbing alcohol with cotton balls.

Mrs. Forrest Moon followed with a comedy sketch, "Advice To The Anxious", telling of a lady's struggle in the care of a plant on advice of her friends which slowly Informal visiting followed during which tempting refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Nutrition authorities say that vegetables cooked properly in a pressure saucepan will retain nutritive values on a par with vegetables cooked properly in an ordinary saucepan.

Green peas and cauliflower with cheese sauce are good vegetables to serve with corned beef hash. For a salad choose cole slaw or hearts of lettuce with Thousand Island Dressings.

Lions Go to Hillsboro For SCO League Tilt

With victories over three of the four other SCO League teams already in the bag, the Lions of Hillsboro go to Hillsboro Friday (tonight) to try to make a clean sweep of the first round when they tangle there with the Indians.

Meanwhile, the four teams in the Fayette County League will be battling each other.

Bloomington's Bulldogs, slight favorites to take the honors in a close race, shouldn't have too much trouble with the hapless Millers, who are long on courage but short on victories this season. The game was booked as a "home" game for Bloomington, but it is to be played at Madison Mills because the Bulldogs are still waiting for their new gymnasium to be completed.

BUT A RIP SNORTIN' game is in prospect at Good Hope where Jeffersonville's Tigers are to meet the Mad Antons. In their previous meeting at Jeffersonville, the Wayne Township boys emerged with a 67 to 47 victory. Incidentally, Jeffersonville upset the Bulldogs, 53 to 52.

New Holland's Bulldogs, just over the line in Pickaway County, but considered among "our teams" by Fayette Countians, will be entertaining the basketballers from Jackson Township in a Pickaway County League tilt.

The Washington C. H.-Hillsboro game was originally scheduled to be played here, but due to a mix-up, it had to be rescheduled at Hillsboro. The Hillsboro boys are slated to play the return game here Feb. 5.

THE INDIANS could well be the stumbling block for the Lions in their quest for SCO honors. The Hillsboroans were beaten by Greenfield's Tigers and Wilmington's Hurricanes, but they took a 46-44 decision from Circleville's Tigers.

The Lions hold victories over all three of those teams—but none of them was won easily. The scores were WHS 46 and Circleville 39; WHS 51 and Greenfield 47; and WHS 43 and Wilmington 41. They have won only one non-league game that was from Ashland, one of the top flight teams of the state and the score was 61 to 60.

Other SCO teams will be in action, too. Bexley goes to Circleville; Wilmington at Greenfield.

Company M Cagers Beat Sabina Outfit

Company M's cagers took the measure of the Sabina Independents, 43 to 34, on the Armory floor here Thursday evening, despite the fact they didn't have any substitutes for the game.

The score was tipped both ways with the M's leading in the opening frame, but dropping behind at half-time.

Following the intermission the Guards tightened up and were able to even the scoring during the eight minute period. It was in the fourth frame that the M's got hot and ranged in 15 points while holding the Sabina team to six.

Gene Stanforth, guard center, led the team's scoring, as well as the game high, with 22 points. Howard Wilson of the Sabina squad came up with 12 tallies.

Next Wednesday evening the Guards will go to Chillicothe to play guard company L in a return game. Company M won the first one, 50 to 32.

Fourth in Row Won By Lion Cub Cagers

The Lion Cubs of Washington C. H. added the fourth victory to their unblemished season's record Thursday afternoon at Wilmington but they had their toughest time yet in nudging out the Zephyrs, 35 to 31.

Not only did the Cubs have their hands full, but they also were given something to think about for the future when the Cubs became full grown Lions and the Zephyrs big Hurricanes. For, Haidet, one of the Wilmington boys, showed just about everything that goes to make an outstanding cager.

Haidet scored 12 points for his team; that was not so much in itself, it was the way he did it that impressed the spectators. His long looping tosses swished through the hoop with amazing accuracy. The Cubs got off to a good start with a 5 point lead in the first period, but they were trailing, 17-14, at the half. That was the way the entire game went—nip and tuck with the ultimate outcome in the balance until the very end.

The offense of the Cubs was spread about evenly among the five starters. It was team work that counted in the end.

The Cubs held victories over Greenfield, 44-17, Hillsboro, 21-16, Circleville, 38-22, and now Wilmington, 35-31.

They are booked to play Circleville's Tiger Cubs here next Wednesday afternoon.

Browns Want Fullback

Vic Janowicz Is Picked By Lions in Pro Draft

NEW YORK, Jan. 18 — (P)—The Cleveland Browns failed to pick up a replacement for Fullback Marion Motley at the National Football League draft of college players, but they did get two promising passers.

Coch Paul Brown had trouble last season finding a runner to take over for the ailing and aging Motley, but he says both of the men he considered were taken before he got a chance at them.

They were Ollie Matson of the University of San Francisco, who went to the Chicago Cards, and Ed Modzelewski of Maryland, who went to Pittsburgh.

Brown said he might get a fullback by trading.

But results so far make the chances look better for Emerson Cole and Chick Jagade, rookies who took Motley's place most of last year.

The two quarterbacks Brown grabbed among his first four picks to help Otto Graham were Harry Aggenis of Boston University and Don Klosterman of Loyola at Los Angeles.

Among the players Brown got on swaps in the early and crucial rounds were Klosterman, from the New York Yanks; Al Rechichar, from Detroit; and Elmer Costa, from Green Bay.

Rechichar, a safety man, is from Tennessee State, and Costa, a guard, is from North Carolina State.

Others among the first 10 Brown got rights on were Bill Hughes, Michigan State center; Joe Campanella, Ohio State tackle; Ray Renfro, North Texas State half; Keever Jankovich, College of the Pacific end; Burrell Shields, John Carroll University defensive back; and John Pace, Mississippi State tackle.

The only one of the first 10 who looks as if he could be drafted by the military is Pace.

Others the Browns picked included:

Robert Finnell, Xavier back; Dick Logan, Ohio State tackle; Steve Ruzich, Ohio State guard; Walter Klevay, Ohio State back; and John Saban, Xavier back.

In addition, these other clubs drafted players from Ohio colleges:

Pittsburgh—John Gearding, Xavier tackle; Jack Hoffman, Xavier end; George Gilmartin, Xavier back; Richard Doyle, Ohio State back.

'Criminal Scum' In Boxing Lashed

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—(P)—Robert Christenberry intends to drive the "criminal scum" out of boxing or he will resign as chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission.

"I promise you," he told boxing writers at their annual banquet Thursday night, "if I can't drive the criminal scum out of boxing I will not only resign, but I will do my utmost to tear away the protection of legality from boxing in this state."

Grenfell Racing Mid-Am Scorers

ATHENS, Jan. 18 — (P)—Percy Grenfell, Kent State University's five-foot-nine-inch guard, tops the Mid-American Basketball Conference in scoring so far this season. Grenfell, one of the shortest men in the conference, has scored 97 points in six league games. That's six more than his nearest contender, teammate Jim Nowakowski.

Elwood Sparks and Glen Hursley of Ohio University are third and fourth. Sparks has scored 73 points and Hursley 63.

The Providence Reds of the American Hockey League have their own radio station, with broadcasting studios right in the Rhode Island Auditorium.

Michigan State's 1951 football team was the first Spartan grid to have an undefeated and untied season since 1913.

"We did it Again!"

That's the jubilant news that comes from Flint to every Buick dealer—and here we pass the thrilling story on to you. It sure is true for '52 that better automobiles are being built — and Buick is building them. Read the good word and you'll agree.

And with all its new power, it delivers more miles per gallon.

But that is not all.

For those who wish it, there is a brand-new version of power steering that works like a helping hand—gives you the same sure feel of control you have always known in straight-away driving—yet takes less than one-fifth the effort needed to turn the ordinary wheel standing at curbside.

Sure, we're putting our best foot forward when we talk about ROADMASTER.

But you'll find a host of notable features in SUPERS and SPECIALS too—plenty to make them, as always, the standout buys in their fields—for ride, for comfort, for style, for room, and for power.

Come in—look this triumphant trio over—and you'll know why every Buick dealer from coast to coast is going around with a smile on his face.

Let's pare this down to plain statements of fact and let them speak for themselves:

The dynamic darling pictured here is the 1952 ROADMASTER.

It has the mightiest engine in Buick history.

It has the biggest brakes of any postwar Buick.

It is the quietest car that Buick ever built.

It has the richest fabrics and smartest tailoring that ever graced a Buick's interior.

It has the greatest trunk space since spare tires moved off the front fenders.

It has the most superb ride in Buick history.

It has the finest carburetor that Buick research has ever devised.

Fayette Sales Tax Receipts Gain in 1951

Total for Year Over $12,000,000, Reports Indicate

Sale of prepaid tax receipts in Fayette County for the last six months of 1951 totaled $197,697.80, which was $2,931.31 more than the sale of tax receipts in the last six months of 1950.

For the final week of the year, as shown by data released by Roger W. Tracy, treasurer of state, sales in Fayette County leaped to $16,915.85 while for the same week in 1950 the sales were only $12,099.87.

The big final week sent the figures for the six month soaring over the figures of the previous year.

A check shows that all counties in this area, with the exception of Ross, finished ahead of the last six months in 1950.

Total sales of goods in Fayette County, subject to sales tax during the last six months of 1951 reached $6,589,866, or $97,676 more than the sales in the last six months of 1950, when the total was $6,492,190. Total sales for 1951 were over $12,000,000 in the county.

In the state at large, the last week in the year was the biggest week in the collection of the retail sales tax, with a total of $7,040,847.

This final week's yield of Ohio's most productive tax source brought the total for the last half of 1951 to $79,953,500.00, a slight gain over the same period of the previous year.

Tracy noted gains in tax receipts from the retail sale of foods, wearing apparel, home furniture, building materials and miscellaneous items sold in drug, hardware, jewelry and other types of retail stores. Sales Tax collections on motor vehicles, radios and television were off.

Tracy said that sales tax collections are substantially ahead of official state estimates, which were submitted to Ohio's General Assembly a year ago, when the state budget was presented to the Ohio Legislature.

He also pointed out that a recent buying trend has been gaining momentum and that sales tax collections for the fiscal year, which will end on June 30, may very likely exceed those of the past fiscal year when the tax produced more than $165,000,000.00 for general revenue purposes.

Woman Draws Suspended Fine In Court Here

Mrs. Clarence Miller, 32, entered a plea of guilty to illegally firing a .22 calibre rifle inside the city limits Friday morning in municipal court and was fined $10 and costs by Judge Robert Brubaker.

Judge Brubaker, after giving Mrs. Miller a stern warning about the dangers of discharging a weapon inside the city limits, suspended the fine, but as is customary, Mrs. Miller was required to pay the court costs.

She had admitted to police that she fired the weapon, which sent a bullet crashing through a window of the Neil Hercules residence, 429 East Elm Street. But Mrs. Miller claimed in court that she was firing wildly at a prowler, and that the bullet must have ricocheted into the Hercules home.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hercules were both in court, and both were asked to testify.

The fine was suspended on the condition that Mrs. Miller not take any more shots at prowlers inside the city limits.

Patrol Uses Radio To Catch Speeding Columbus Driver

An insurance agent from Columbus, with speed in mind, out-distanced a state highway patrolman who saw him whizzing along the highway near Washington C. H., but he failed to reckon with the speed of radio transmission.

The highway patrolman radioed ahead, and the highway patrol in Wilmington nabbed the insurance man about three miles east of that city.

The speedy driver—Clifton H. Murfin of Columbus—was required to post $50 bond for his appearance in mayor's court in Wilmington.

A highway patrolman reported that Murfin pulled away from his patrol car, which was doing 80 miles an hour.

Mrs. Homer Wilson Dies after Illness

Death claimed Mrs. Gladys Wilson, 49, of Good Hope at 8:30 o'clock Friday morning. She had been in failing health for the past three years and seriously ill for the past five months.

Mrs. Wilson, wife of Homer D. Wilson, Sr., was born in Frankfort. She moved to the Sugar Grove community following her marriage and had resided in Good Hope for about the past 15 years. She was a member of the Sugar Grove Methodist Church, the Good Hope Grange, Golden Rule Sunday School Class and the Twin Oaks Garden Club.

Surviving Mrs. Wilson, besides her husband, are two sons, Homer, Jr. of Good Hope, and Robert Wilson of Circleville, and one daughter, Mrs. Russell Hatfield of Good Hope.

Also surviving are her mother, Mrs. Warren Miller of Good Hope; one brother, Robert Miller of Macon, Ga., and six grandsons.

Funeral services will be held in the Good Hope Methodist Church under the direction of the Hook and Son Funeral Home. Rev. Eugene E. Frazer of the church will conduct the services. Burial will be in the family lot in the Sugar Grove Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home any time after noon Saturday, until noon on Monday.

Population experts estimate there are between 30 and 60 million refugees in the world today.

Two Men Hurt In Auto Crash

Accident Occurs On North Street

Two men were hospitalized about 6:40 P. M. Thursday, when one car crashed into another parked at the curb on North North Street, near the intersection of Rose Avenue.

The men, both residents of Washington C. H., are Strawder M. Fletcher, and Pearl Self Jr.

Self, who was taken to Memorial Hospital in the Gerstner ambulance, sustained a fractured left arm and fractured left leg, as well as cuts and bruises.

Fletcher sustained chest injuries and cuts and bruises. He was taken in the police patrol car to the hospital for treatment.

The accident occurred while the Self car was parked on the west side of North Street while Self was talking with some people who were on the sidewalk.

Fletcher was driving south at the time, and his car crashed into the rear of the Self car, driving it 42 yards down the street.

Fletcher told police he was blinded by the bright lights of an approaching car and did not see the Self car.

Both cars were damaged considerably.

Boy Burglars Are Nabbed by Sheriff

Three young burglars, whom Sheriff Orland Hays said were old offenders, were taken into custody by the sheriff on Thursday evening for breaking into the Ed Coll home on the Wildwood Road, a mile northwest of Eber, early Thursday afternoon.

Entrance was gained by means of a rear window, and the trio ransacked the house, but did not take anything of great value.

They were taken into custody and will face Juvenile Judge Reu G. Allen on the charges.

Post Card Squabble

drawn in committee, he tried to raise the postal card rate to two cents, leaving post cards at a penny. Failing that, he sponsored the 10 per cent surcharge on quantity purchases as the next best thing.

Rep. Rhodes (D-Pa.), one of those who have introduced repealers, said the practical result is "a lot of confusion."

"It's ridiculous in the eyes of people who want to buy 1,000 or 5,000 cards to be told they have to pay more for them than if they bought them in lots of 49," he said.

Rhodes said the situation is not much different from a bank demanding a check for $110 in payment for a package of 100 one-dollar bills.

Surprised Man Finds He's in Race with Patrol

Charles J. Brant of Elmwood Place, Cincinnati, tried to outrun a state highway patrol car driven by M. E. Brickles on Thursday evening, and received a citation to appear before Mayor Robert Nunn of Sabina.

Brickles picked up the speeding car along the CCC Highway and every time he sought to pull up alongside the speeding car, Brant put on a burst of speed.

Brickles had his car going 80 miles an hour, as the cars reached Sabina, and the driver was forced to stop for a traffic light.

Brickles pulled up alongside and placed Brant under arrest.

"It doesn't always pay to stay in front, does it?" inquired Brickles.

"No it doesn't," Brant replied as he realized he had been trying to outrun a highway patrol car.

Electrical Storm Hits City in Night

The first electrical storms of the season occurred Thursday afternoon and night, with a total precipitation of .45 of an inch.

About 9 P. M. the worst storm of the series occurred in Washington C. H., and heavy rainfall, and some hail fell. There was also a heavy wind.

The mercury tumbled 32 degrees, from 61 in the afternoon to a low of 29 degrees during the night.

Board Members Here Tour City Schools

Members of the Washington C. H. Board of Education are carefully checking all the buildings in the city school system to familiarize themselves with many of the rehabilitation jobs which will be accomplished this summer.

Supt. Stephen Brown said today that the board is tentatively planning visits to Rose Avenue, Cherry Hill and Sunnyside schools a week from Saturday.

Last Saturday the board members went through the high school, Central School and Eastside School.

They made notes of items of work which they felt should be taken care of and were made familiar with some of the projects which will be taken care of in the 1952 rehabilitation program.
